University of Toronto.

Dear Mr. President,

In Victoria College, ^{as} I have learned, the students enrolled in the Officers Training Corps take their afternoon drill on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays only. It may consequently happen that lectures will be given here after 4 o'clock on Tuesdays and Thursdays in both the Arts and Theological Faculties (for, as perhaps you may be interested to know, the Faculty of Theology has followed the University's practice in withdrawing lectures after 4 o'clock). I have thought it well to let you know of this, in order that in case any rumor should come to you that might seem to reflect upon the College, or any of its staff, in this respect, you might be aware beforehand of the facts in the case.

Yours sincerely,

J. C. Robinson

Professor J. C. Robertson,
Victoria College,
Toronto.

Dear Professor Robertson:

I have to thank you for your letter stating that on some days of the week there may be lectures after four o'clock. Possibly these are the lectures to which some students referred who were speaking to Professor McLennan. I told him, however, that the lectures were all off after that hour. I assure, however, that the College arrangements must be left to the discretion of each College.

Yours sincerely,

President.

Dear Professor Robertson:

I have written to Professor Macallum asking him to call the conference as soon as he can.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
